Battle System • Every attack has a chance for an effect (R, P, F), so there is no pause during battle. • Each enemy has different strengths and weaknesses. Be wary of having your character fall off of a cliff or being surrounded by enemies. • Every time you level up, you can increase your INT, STR, or MAG stats. You can also increase the AP cost of items. • Low-level enemies will have higher AP costs, so it's best to specialize in R/P/F to gain advantage. Use a variety of skills to adapt to the situation. • Each character has a skill called an XST that causes a chance for an effect (EX, DT, SP, GT). In addition to the effects of your normal skills, this XST has an effect that is different from the normal effect. Go to the lower left corner of the screen to use this XST. Fight and Attack • Attack an enemy and gain EXP. If an enemy is defeated, SP will be gained. SP is used to increase stats or skills. • If you and an enemy are fighting, you will gain EXP and SP depending on your level and the level of the enemy. • With HP and MP, you can block or parry an enemy's attack. HP is consumed if it is blocked. • Some enemy attacks have an effect (R, P, F), so battle becomes interesting. • When HP and MP is below a certain amount, you will lose your HP or MP. Health is restored when you rest at a resting place, and it is restored as you drink. Magic • Magic is added to the game using AP. There is a magic tree where you can learn new spells at the bottom. ♦ All Characters Companion Character • To increase your speed in exploration and battles, a companion character is available. • If you have a companion, you will receive a bonus when exploring and taking on battles. You can also lose companions by running out of AP. Eddlestone Ring Menu • Help the community create their own story. After answering the questions in the "Basic" and "Opinion" sections, you will be able to create your own story. Create Your Own Story • Every question you ask results in a different response. Depending on which questions you ask, you will receive different responses. • For example, question 2 gives a fantasy story that was told by a player.
